

BACKGROUND

The Cowra Regional Art Gallery (CRAG) is a cultural facility of the Cowra Shire Council located in the same precinct as the World Peace Bell, Cowra Library and Cowra Civic Centre. The Gallery prides itself as a welcoming, vibrant and progressive public gallery offering a dynamic program of changing exhibitions every five to six weeks for the enjoyment of the Cowra community and visitors to the district. This includes in-house and touring exhibitions of contemporary art and craft practices, curated social/cultural history art projects and Australian art exhibitions of historical significance from major museums across the country.

The Gallery also presents the prestigious Calleen Art Award acquisitive painting prize, open to artists across Australia, and upstART youth exhibition and awards in collaboration with high schools from the region.

Public events include a broad range of activities such as openings with guest speakers and art workshops for children and adults.

The Gallery boasts a significant collection of artworks by emerging and established Australian artists including the Calleen Collection established in 1977 by Mrs Patricia Fagan OAM in association with the Calleen Art Award. Important heritage artworks by Italian and Japanese Prisoners of War (POW) interned at the Cowra POW Camp during World War II are also stored at the Gallery.

The Gallery Shop offers visitors a unique selection of artist greeting cards, art books, art magazines, local history publications, ceramics, textiles, puzzles and jewellery.

We invite and welcome your involvement and support.
